Why join PNPCA?

The Pacific Northwest Precast Concrete Association strives to improve the precast concrete industry through education, interaction, marketing, and sharing ideas

A few good reasons to join:

- Learn efficient ways to run your company through relevant, industry-specific education
- Market your products and services through the association's website www.pnpca.net
- Join our pipe and technical committees to monitor and have a voice in industry specification and usage trends
- Participate in our marketing and promotions programs
- Network and learn with your peers at the Winter Meeting and Annual Conference
- Participate in our production seminars to keep your plants efficient
- Monitor industry regulations and legislative issues
- Learn about national industry issues through our participation with NCPA & ACPA

Do any of these reasons sound good to you? If so, simply fill out the membership application on the back and return to the PNPCA office.

If you need further convincing, visit our website at www.pnpca.net or contact the PNPCA office at 503.257.9806 or info@pnpca.net— we'll be happy to answer your questions.
